IMAGINE

Presented by Pastor Daren L. Barron

Sermon Notes from June 13, 2021

Imagine

- IMAG'INE, verb transitive [Latin imaginor, from imago, image.]
  - 1. To form a notion or idea in the mind;
  - 2. To form ideas or representations in the mind, by modifying and combining our conceptions.
  - 3. To contrive in purpose; to scheme; to devise. How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? Psalms 62:3.
- IMAG'INE, verb intransitive
  - To conceive; to have a notion or idea. I cannot imagine how this should have happened.
  - To form mental images of things not present to the senses; use the imagination.

Ephesians 1:18 The Voice

Open the eyes of their hearts, and let the light of Your truth flood in. Shine Your light on the hope You are calling them to embrace. Reveal to them the glorious riches You are preparing as their inheritance.

- My optical eyes are not the only source of sight. I can also see with my heart (mind).

See it!

2 Corinthians 5:7 Amplified Bible

for we walk by faith, not by sight [living our lives in a manner consistent with our confident belief in God's promises]—

Romans 1:17 English Standard Version

For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, “The righteous shall live by faith.”

- As you connect your Imagination to your Faith you can begin to experience a spiritual reality before a physical reality.

Hebrews 11:1 Amplified Bible

Now faith is the assurance (title deed, confirmation) of things hoped for (divinely guaranteed), and the evidence of things not seen [the conviction of their reality—faith comprehends as fact what cannot be experienced by the physical senses].

2 Corinthians 12:6-10 The Message

6 If I had a mind to brag a little, I could probably do it without looking ridiculous, and I'd still be speaking plain truth all the way. But I'll spare you. I don't want anyone imagining me as anything other than the fool you'd encounter if you saw me on the street or heard me talk. 7-10 Because of the extravagance of those revelations, and so I wouldn't get a big head, I was given the gift of a handicap to keep me in constant touch with my limitations. Satan's angel did his best to get me down; what he in fact did was push me to my knees. No danger then of walking around high and mighty! At first I didn't think of it as a gift, and begged God to remove it. Three times I did that, and then he told me, My grace is enough; it's all you need. My strength comes into its own in your weakness. Once I heard that, I was glad to let it happen. I quit focusing on the handicap and began appreciating the gift. It was a case of Christ's strength moving in on my weakness. Now I take limitations in stride, and with good cheer, these limitations that cut me down to size—abuse, accidents, opposition, bad breaks. I just let Christ take over! And so the weaker I get, the stronger I become.
