

Learning to Love Living Righteous: Conclusion

Presented by Pastor Daren L. Barron

Sermon Notes from December 5, 2010

- In recent time we generally define right by what feels good to us and what is accepted by society.
- Christians want just enough to get to heaven but not enough to live right.
- The appeal of living right does not kick in until you start doing it.
- First, we need a concept of what is right.

Matthew 5:6 (Amplified Bible)

⁶Blessed and fortunate and happy and spiritually prosperous (in that state in which the born-again child of God enjoys His favor and salvation) are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness (uprightness and right standing with God), for they shall be completely satisfied!

Matthew 6:33 (Amplified Bible)

33But seek (aim at and strive after) first of all His kingdom and His righteousness (His way of doing and being right), and then all these things taken together will be given you besides.
